

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact John Skinner
631-9652747
jskinner@optonline.net

John Skinner's "A Season On The Edge"

SMITHTOWN, NY (January 23, 2008)- A Season on the Edge : Stories From A Surfcaster's Year by John Skinner, a columnist, feature writer, and former Editor-in-Chief for Nor'east Saltwater, chronicles a season of surfcasting from the shores of eastern Long Island.

Both entertaining and informative, A Season on the Edge is woven together from a collection of stories culled from the author's detailed logs, and told in the order of a seasonal progression. These stories draw the reader into the experiences and the atmosphere of each trip, and are told with a level of detail that presents useful techniques and strategies that can be applied anywhere along the striper coast.

A Season on the Edge contains valuable information for those interested in tackle and technique, as well as exciting firsthand accounts of the saltwater fishing experience that can be enjoyed by even the most accomplished anglers. A Season on the Edge can be purchased online at select online retailers or select bait & tackle shops throughout the northeast for $16.95.

About the Author

John Skinner is a long time Surf Fishing Columnist, feature writer and former Editor-in-Chief of Northeast Saltwater Magazine. He was also a contributing writer for New England Stripers, A Fishing Anthology, published by On the Water Magazine. Skinner is a frequent speaker at outdoor shows and fishing club seminars, and has taught surf fishing courses for the Riverhead School District's Adult Education Program.

###